Our Mission

The mission of IFRE Volunteers is to offer the most affordable as well as the highest quality volunteer and humanitarian abroad experiences - enabling us to make a contribution for all of humanity in its quest to make the world a better place. Through our volunteer and humanitarian trips abroad, we aim to spread love and compassion worldwide while improving the lives of destitute children and less-fortunate communities. We at IFRE also seek sustainable solutions in the fields of education, healthcare, conservation efforts and development issues through international volunteering.

Our Partners and Coordinators

IFRE works with terrific country co-ordinator, most of them are mature, educated, socially respected, and having long history of working with international volunteers. Before joining IFRE Vounteers, our country coordinators were working as a expedition leader, social worker, trek leaders, teachers, and other professional. Country- coordinators of IFRE Volunteers have tremendous enthusiasm to their job. They are committed for a high quality and responsible program in their native country. National co-ordinator is your main contact when you will be in your placement. He/she will help you on:

- Airport receive and transfer
- Management of room and food in host family/hostel
- Orientation of local country, culture, host family, safety, and related issues
- Introduce you to your host family and project staffs
- Periodic follow up visit to ensure everything going good for you
- Offer advices to solve any issues, problems, and concerns
Why IFRE Is Unique Compared To Other Volunteer Abroad Programs?

The Most Affordable Fee - Internet research shows us as the most affordable volunteer program

At IFRE, we are committed to making Volunteer Abroad possible for everyone. So when you join us you not only pay lowest fee in the world, but you also pay it directly to your host family or to the project. This way, people who need and deserve the money get it. Our commitment to providing volunteer programs for all ages and interest has made us a leading volunteer abroad provider in the world with unbeatable prices.

Pay Your Fee Directly To Host Families

Thousands of volunteers join volunteer abroad program and pay as much as $3000 for a 2 weeks experience. Unfortunately, only a small portion of it goes to the host family/project. And when you stay with the host family, gradually you learn that your host family is getting a very small fraction of it. You may wonder "where the heck is all that money going" and "does anyone actually care about the projects and host families"? Therefore, to maintain the honesty and financial transparency, we adopted a model where you pay your fees directly to the host families and projects (through country coordinator).

Our Experience Of 8 Years & 17,000 Happy Volunteers

When you join IFRE volunteers, you will be part of an establishment which has received highly positive feedback and become a reputed volunteer organization globally.

Volunteers in Ecuador will mostly stay with host families. Living with a host family will give you with a wonderful opportunity to learn about local culture and customs. Our host families will have experience of hosting international volunteers before and at least one member of the family will be able to communicate with you in English. You will be given three local meals a day. There will be shared bathroom.

Eating and sleeping

Volunteers’ qualifications

No special skills are required for participating for most IFRE’s programs other than being open-minded, passionate about serving humanity, physically fit and ready for the hardships of living in a developing country. Teachers in English teaching projects must be fluent in English. In health project, volunteers must be either medically trained professionals (doctors or nurses) or currently on the process of being trained (medical students). You must produce proof of this.

Orientation

The 1- to 2-hour long Orientation program offers unique insight into Ecuadorian culture and living. Some knowledge of local do’s and don’ts will be shared. Knowledge on everything from politics to transportation will be passed along as well.

Daily Life of a volunteer

The day to day agenda of volunteers varies according to the project, season and location. Here is a typical schedule:

7AM - 8AM: Wake up, enjoy breakfast and get ready for the project.
8AM - 10AM: Arrive in the project, discuss about daily schedule with project coordinator and other agendas.
10AM -12Noon: Work in the volunteer projects alongside local staffs.
12Noon - 1PM: Launch break, relax, and rest.
1PM - 3PM: Work in volunteer project.
3PM - 4PM: Wrap up volunteer work for the day and head home to either host family or home base.
After 4PM: Your free time - use it to explore the country, culture, or just simply rest and relax.

This was a fantastic experience from start to finish, from being picked up at the airport at exactly the agreed time, everything continued in this way.

- Simon Williams

The IFRE staffs were extremely helpful and warm. They made my time while volunteering unforgettable. The children in my project were amazing and the project was so rewarding. I loved every second.

- Shandah Inglis
Arrival Information

Arriving

Volunteers will fly into and out of Quito International Airport. After you’ve confirmed your flight details, please pass the information to us. You’ll be picked up at the airport upon arrival by our staff.

Visas

While tourist visas can be obtained upon arrival in Quito, IFRE recommends its volunteers to get a visa in an Ecuadorian embassy or consulate, as getting a visa on arrival is marked by chaos and a long line.

Safety

Nothing is more important at IFRE than the safety of its volunteers. Families, staffers and the status of destination countries have all been carefully considered and screened long before projects are decided upon. Four layers of safety are provided for our volunteers: the country coordinator, project staff, field staff and comprehensive insurance coverage.

Vaccinations

IFRE suggests its volunteers to look at the Ecuador country guide from the Centers for Disease Control at www.cdc.gov. It is recommended that travelers to Ecuador get vaccines for:

- Routine (Recommended if you are not up-to-date with routine shots such as, measles/mumps/rubella (MMR) vaccine, diphtheria/pertussis/tetanus (DPT) vaccine, poliovirus vaccine, etc.)
- Rabies
- Hepatitis A or immune globulin (IG)
- Hepatitis B
- Malaria
- Typhoid
- Yellow Fever
